DAY 1 SANTA CRUZ – VILLA AMBORÓ

Depart in the morning from the Santa Cruz city, headed to the town of Buena Vista (2h) where we make a short stop for a coffee tasting. We will return to the journey to the Rio Surutú to the hostel Villa Amboró Community. We accommodate and rest a while before lunch. In the afternoon, a walk in the "Sendero Maravilla", this path shows the different forest species that allow interpretation of the nature of a rainforest; you can see the traces of different species of mammals, hear the birds singing and observe the variety of butterfly species that inhabit the place. Return to the lodge for dinner and overnight.

DAY 2 VILLA AMBORÓ

After breakfast we will walk the path Tatucitos, with 1,400 mts. away, we can identify more than 80 species of trees properly marked with their scientific and common names for easy interpretation, and a large variety of orchids that adorn the path with their colors and sizes. Hopefully you will see some species of small mammals that inhabit the area, although these are characterized as evasive and avoid the presence of man so that traces of them can be spotted during the ride Tatucitos and give you an idea of the diversity there mammal. We can take a refreshing dip in its two pools with views on an impressive waterfall of 50 meters high from which falls a beautiful stream of water increasing the natural beauty of the place.

DAY 3 VILLA AMBORÓ – SANTA CRUZ

We will make our final tour of the trails close to the lodge and depart for the town of Buena Vista, after lunch we will find the vehicle that will take us back to the city of Santa Cruz and Cochabamba.
