

Route: Live culture, history, ecotourism
Duration: 3 days / 2 nights
Starts and ends in Santa Cruz
Guide: Spanish-speaking
Difficulty: Easy
Comfort: Good

DAY 1

This trip, meant for meeting the Chiquitanía people, starts in Santa Cruz. From there we head in a private transport to San Antonio de Lomerío, across the almost depopulated Chiquitano woods where, if lucky, you will view a wide range of animals such as badgers, jochis, countless birds and maybe even felids. In San Antonio the community people are your hosts and they will show you the riches of Mankox culture. Local guides will take you through the village and you will learn to weave, make necklaces and bracelets, and other San Antonio handicrafts. At night there will be an autochthonic dance and music cultural show in Lomerío. You will spend the night at the village people's homes.

DAY 2

Next day, after visiting "Las Garzas" lagoon, we head to Concepción, the most important of Jesuitical Missions in Chiquitanía. There we have lunch before visiting the Mission Ensemble: the Cathedral of Concepción built about the middle of the XVIII century and considered the most spectacular of all. Its architecture, as well as the paintings and sculptures it holds, perfectly show the devoted symbiosis history between the Chiquitano indigenous people and the Jesuit missionaries. Accommodation in a high class hotel equipped with a swimming-pool and an orchid nursery.

DAY 3

The third day we'll go for a walk through the Chiquitano Woods around Candelaria village where you will discover its natural riches and especially its wide range of orchids. Community members will serve you a typical lunch. In the afternoon we'll visit the oldest site of the Misiones: San Xavier. There you will enjoy another neo-baroque Chiquitano architecture jewel. After that we return to Santa Cruz around dinner time.

ADVICES

We recommend you to take fresh clothing, comfortable shoes, repellent, sunglasses and sun-block cream.
